

User Guide

Background:

- Recent graduates may not be fully professionals yet, but we want to recommend the best jobs to recent college graduates based on their skills and preferences to:
  - Increase chances for recent graduates to get a great hire.
  - Expand the network to create a professional community.
  - Discover emerging talent early.
- Application is for recent graduates who want to find a job or improve their skills.
- It will Decrease the unemployment percentage.
- It will Expand the network communication for recent graduates to create a professional community.
- Increase chances to recent graduates to get a great hire.
- It's easy to use and easy to create a profile, by making sure that the application processes are easy and comfortable.

Details:

Certificate Track:

- It's a feature with a minimum price subscription to help recent graduates by giving them the right certificates track in any field they want to be qualified on it.
- users can get to this feature by login into the application and enter the search page and select the field they want.
- The issue with this feature is users need to log in to the application to get verification of their subscription.

Upload Resume:

- Users can upload their resume into their profile professionally through our application so that they can enroll in any job without submitting their resume each time.
- users can get to this feature by login into the application and enter their profile then upload their resume.
- The issue with this feature is the application will ask the user to access the device data to select to resume file.

Upload Certificates:

- Users can upload their certificates professionally through our application so that they can find jobs that match their qualifications.
- users can get to this feature by login into the application and enter their profile then upload their certificates.
- The issue with this feature is the application will ask the user to access the device data to select certificates files.

